

TROOPS READY TO FIGHT MOB

FRENCH SOLDIERS PREPARED TO QUELL THE WINE GROWERS' RIOTS.

NEW RIOTS AND MORE BLOOD-SHED ARE EXPECTED BEFORE THE END.

PEOPLE PREPARE TO RESIST

Rioters Are Using the Torch in Their Desire for Revenge on Wine Merchants—Troops Given Ball Cartridges.

Epernay, France, April 14.—With 12,000 troops on duty here, ready to charge rioting wine growers, and with populace threatening reprisals and resistance, new riots and bloodshed are expected in the champagne war. The soldiers are armed with ball cartridges and have orders to fire on the mob in case of resistance.

Rioters are using the torch in their desire for revenge on the wine merchants. Fires started in the village of Ay at midnight threatened to wipe out the town. While the mob was at work wrecking and burning, a detachment of cavalry charged the rioters, but the mounted troops were met with a rain of missiles. One lieutenant was seriously wounded.

The crisis had its origin in purely economic questions. Following the Narbonne riots in 1907, it was decreed by law that the great wine-producing districts—Bordeaux, Cognac, Champagne and others—be delimited, and that only the real products of those districts should be sold under the label Bordeaux, Cognac or Champagne. Violent recriminations followed from the districts outside of these zones which hitherto had produced wine and called it by one of the famous names.

Latterly Aube department was particularly excited because it was excluded from Champagne. On Saturday last 50,000 Aubeois gathered at Troyes and decided to assert their right to be included in Champagne. The Marne wine growers, who had hoped to profit by the delimitation which favored them, are furious at this decision, and also at the vote in the senate which invited the government to support the contentions of the Marne growers.

Thereupon the Marne growers assembled and marched upon villages. Hence the rioting and bloodshed of the last few days.

At Vinay the rioters hastily threw up barricades with barrels, cases and debris of all sorts and succeeded in holding back the advancing troops while another group armed with torches entered the vast champagne depot. The mob smashed all the bottles of champagne they could find, wrecked the wine presses and then set fire to the buildings.

Women were foremost in the work of destruction, chanting snatches of revolutionary airs and urging on the men. When the troops reached Vinay the women lay down on the roads and defied the cavalry to ride over them. Eventually the troops succeeded in getting control of the situation and dispersing the manifestants.

HOUSE DEMANDS RESIGNATION OF WARDEN RUSSELL

Lansing, Mich., April 14.—The Ogs bill abolishing corporal punishment in all its forms in the prisons of the state, passed the house this morning, only eight members voting against it. The only change made in the measure was the elimination of the amendment prohibiting the use of handcuffs. It was pointed out that this was a mistake in drawing up the bill, as the use of handcuffs is necessary to discipline. Only two members of the eight who voted against the bill are from the lower peninsula—Reps. Stevenson of Detroit and Warner of Leelanau.

Following are the members who voted against it: Reps. Edwards, Gowing, Field, Lucas, Morgan, Stevenson, Simonds and Warner.

The House also adopted by a vote of 54 to 25, the minority report of Marquette prison investigating committee, demanding the removal of Warden Russell and the board of control and the abolishing of corporal punishment at the institution.

COMMISSION REFUSES TO GRANT LOW RATES; FIGHT WAXES WARM

Washington, April 14.—The interstate commerce commission has declined to make any reduction in what are known as ex-lake grain rates from Buffalo, N. Y., to eastern destinations, either on domestic or export traffic.

The proceeding, pending for many months, was instituted by the Chicago board of trade against the Atlantic City Railroad company and many other eastern carriers and by the New York produce exchange against the New York Central and Hudson River railroad and others. The complaints were heard together, and are covered by a single opinion prepared by Commissioner Prouty. Both companies attacked the reasonableness of the rates on grain received at Buffalo by water from the west and shipped by rail from Buffalo to eastern points, in the one case for domestic consumption and in the other for export.

TILDEN HOLDING BACK

Chicago Packer Before Helm Committee Objects Strenuously to Revealing Books.

Springfield, Ill., April 14.—Edward Tilden, the packer, who has been named as treasurer of the alleged $100,000 Lorimer fund, appeared before the Helm investigating committee here. After naming the different banks in which he carries accounts he declared he had strenuous objections to giving up his records of deposits in the Drovers' Deposit National bank, of which he is president. The questions of Attorney Healy, conducting the examination for the committee, brought out that a subpoena had been issued for these papers, but that they had not been obtained. Mr. Tilden declared that he seldom signed his own checks, even on the banks in which he carried personal accounts.

Mr. Tilden was served with subpoena duces tecum to produce the books and accounts of his bank desired by the committee. This subpoena was served as Mr. Tilden left the stand.

M. B. Coan, investigator for the committee, related a story of a conversation of Mr. Hines with several citizens of Marquette, Mich., in which the Chicago lumberman is said to have boasted how he rose from a poor boy to a millionaire and crowned his career by electing William Lorimer United States senator.

WANTS TO END SOME FAT JOBS

CUMMINGS INTRODUCES BILL TO DISSOLVE MONETARY COMMISSION.

FIRST INVESTIGATION MOVE TO BE MADE BY THE SENATE INSURGENTS.

WOULD HAVE IT EXPIRE DEC. 5

Act Creating Body Also Gave Its Chairman, Senator Aldrich, Unlimited and Unquestioned Authority to Spend Money.

Washington, April 14.—The first move on the part of the senate insurgents to inquire into the workings of the national monetary commission was made by Senator Cummings of Iowa. He introduced a bill requiring the commission to make a final report not later than Dec. 4 and to amend the act creating the commission to make it expire on Dec. 5.

Since the adjournment of the Sixty-First congress there has been much criticism of the national monetary commission. Some time ago the insurgent Republican senators talked the matter over and decided that some action should be taken to put an end to the commission and to put a limitation upon the power to expend money under the authority of congress which created that body. As the law was enacted there is absolutely no limit, the insurgents contend, to the amount of money that may be expended in the work of the commission. The chairman or acting chairman of the commission has full power to direct the expenditures and to approve them and by the specific wording of the act, his final approval shall not be questioned by any auditing officer of the government.

The criticism directed against the national monetary commission has been chiefly based on the fact that so many former senators and former representatives have got snags therein at salaries equal to those which they drew as members of congress.

The bill introduced by Senator Cummings is designed, it is said, to open up the entire subject. Aldrich is chairman of the commission and Representative Vreeland of New York is vice chairman. From announcements made from time to time it has been the expectation that the work of the commission will be concluded by the time congress meets in regular session in December, and if that be true the Cummings bill will not work any disarrangement of plans, although it is likely to lead to a general debate on the affairs of the commission.

Direct Elections Resolution Passes.

Washington, April 14.—The only business considered by the house was the Rucker resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution whereby United States senators shall be elected by popular vote. The resolution was passed.

DETECTIVES IN BLACK HAND NET

HEAD OF PERKINS AGENCY AND SON ARE TAKEN INTO CUSTODY.

WAIVE PRELIMINARY HEARING, GIVE $1,000 BOND FOR RELEASE.

CHARGE DEFRAUDING BY MAIL

Postoffice Inspectors Accuse Perkinses of Writing Threatening Letter to Rich Man, so They Might be Employed in Pursuit.

Indianapolis, April 14.—Gilbert B. Perkins of Pittsburg, head of the Perkins Detective Agency, and his son, Walter Perkins of this city, who has been manager of the Indianapolis branch, were arrested here by Deputy United States Marshals Wilson and Rankin, on the charge of using the mails with intent to defraud.

It is charged that the men sent a "black hand" letter to C. Strong, a wealthy electric railroad man and manufacturer of Erie, Pa., threatening to blow up his family house unless he took $50,000 to a designated place and that the purpose in writing the letter was to obtain the agency employment from Strong in the work of ferreting out the authorship of the combination. G. B. Perkins attributes his arrest to the hostility of a rival detective agency.

Accompanying the deputies from the marshal's office were five postoffice inspectors who have been at work on the case. The Strong case recently had been largely in the hands of W. C. Ela, inspector at Indianapolis.

Before Commissioner Charles W. Moores, the two managers of the agency waived a preliminary hearing. They were released under a bond of $1,000. An affidavit by Hutchens alleges that at Erie, Pa., on Feb. 13, G. B. Perkins, Walter Perkins and A. Thomas, also of the agency devised a scheme of defrauding Strong, the scheme being that they would write a letter to him threatening the destruction of his mausoleum or his house, unless he took $50,000 at a certain time and to a place designated, where the money could be obtained. Thereafter, it is alleged, the detectives were to solicit employment for Strong under the pretense of finding the persons who had written the letter and that by "Such employment and from such pretended services they would obtain additional large sums of money."

The letter, which it is alleged, was mailed on Feb. 13 as set out in the affidavit, follows:

"P. S.—or your house will be blown up. Mr. Strong."

"Leave $50,000 at Thirty-First street and Pennsylvania avenue on the night of Feb. 21 at 12 p. m. or you will have your mausoleum blown up and if you bring any police on 21st of February my man will shoot them—black hand."

Gilbert B. Perkins, the head of the agency, has spent most of his time in Indianapolis during the last two months and a half. He formerly was a United States secret service operator and as such is said to have been regarded as an able and reliable officer.

The arrest came as a surprise, he said, as he had no inkling that he or any member of his agency was suspected of doing the black hand work in the Strong case. He said he believed the case would not result in any serious inconvenience to the defendants, as he has no doubt they would be acquitted.

THE PEOPLE'S SIDE OF THE GAS QUESTION.

Second: The second proposition advanced by the Gas company in the published expression of its side of the new gas franchise question is an attempt to answer affirmatively its question: "Is the city fully protected under the new ordinance?" It says, "We call your attention to the following restrictions, none of which appear in the old ordinance. The new ordinance gives no exclusive rights; the old one does."

By the very nature of things the business of a gas company is exclusive. No other gas manufacturing company in a city the size of Ypsilanti now is, or is likely to be in thirty years from now, would attempt to enter this field; whether the franchise of the Ypsilanti Gas company were exclusive or not. This public utility is a natural monopoly and cannot be relied on to be controlled by competition. And, being a natural monopoly of a public necessity, the monopoly should be perpetually reserved to the people, for the benefit of themselves, their children and their children's children.

And if the city will grant another 30-year franchise the Gas company concedes that it may compel extension of mains. The way in which the city may compel the Gas company to extend mains seems to be contained in Section 2 of the proposed new 30-year franchise. This section reads as follows:

"Said company shall supply gas at the rate herein specified to all applicants not in arrears for prior bills, owning or occupying premises on streets in which gas mains or conductors are laid and where said company has not laid mains or conductors said company shall lay mains in streets upon the petition of two applicants who are owners or occupants of buildings averaging two buildings in every 200 feet of the main pipe required to supply the same, if directed to do so by the common council." It will be observed that the city cannot compel the extension of mains unless the number of houses within the length of the extension averages two to every 200 feet. So this doesn't seem to be a very large consideration for a 30-year franchise. But it serves to illustrate the difference in the promoting value of a public utility owned and operated by a non-resident private corporation or a resident private corporation and the same public utility owned and operated by the municipality itself. The private corporation owns and operates the public utility for the sole and only purpose of obtaining the largest possible profit, while the public utility would own and operate its own public utility for the uniform development of the municipality and to meet its actual needs, and not only to meet them but to anticipate them, and if the anticipating of them does it offer perform a very valuable service to the public at large. It is more profitable for the private corporation selling gas and heat and fuel to have the streets built up solid as it is in Philadelphia and many large cities nothing but partition walls separating one home, so called, from another. The private corporation selling the public necessity cares nothing about the hygienic conditions of the city; it cares nothing about the death rate nor the health rate; it doesn't concern itself in those larger assets of a municipality which the municipality itself is compelled to look out for or else pay the heavy toll of negligence for not having adequately anticipated its growth and encouraged it. A city then owning a gas plant would encourage the building of the city so that each home might be built upon liberal lines and might be surrounded by a liberal-sized garden and grass plot, with trees and flowers and fresh air and God's sunshine in plenty for everybody. And even the city with all its power cannot get gas, heat and light as furnished by the Gas company to the homes of its citizens unless perchance they are built as thickly as two in every 200 feet in the district which it desires to open up and develop for its people.

And another inducement to granting this 30-year franchise is that the city will naturally have under its so far as the Gas company is concerned, full protection for its streets, pavements and other pipe lines and shade trees and the Gas company in forms us that these protective measures are absent from the other franchise. And so, after having given the hundreds of thousands of dollars of valuable franchise values to the Ypsilanti Gas company and having had no protection through all these generations, we are now in consideration of having new improvements and extensions, given promise not to damage the street nor the shade trees. Well, still this is considerate. We certainly do need this protection from the Gas company but we do not need it bad enough to give them a 30-year franchise for it. We can compel it anyhow, whether their franchise provides for it or not, and it is our business to do so.

And furthermore the "pipes are to be laid where directed." Well, they're pretty much all laid now anyhow that will be according to their claims prior to the expiration of their present franchise, so we needn't worry particularly about their laying their pipes where we don't want them laid, and if they do, we can have them removed.

And again, "the price charged for gas must be reduced if the cost is reduced." It should be remembered that this non-resident private corporation will not volunteer any information to the city that the cost of producing gas is any less at any time during the whole 30 years of its asked-for franchise life. But enlightened self-interest will dictate, after it has once gotten the franchise, that it will throw every possible obstacle in the way of the city finding out during that 30 years that it is actually making gas for less than when the franchise was granted. This provision is of no practical value. The federal and state government are receiving sufficient experience these days in endeavoring to prove what the earnings of the railroads are. But when the people own the gas plant themselves, then the law of enlightened self-interest naturally works to induce them to be on the alert to discover ways of cheapening the cost of production of this public necessity, and they will not need to have anybody to watch them in order to get the benefit of the lessened cost of production. It will automatically and naturally flow to the people as fast as discovered and applied.

And again: "Supply pipes must be extended to property of consumer without charge." This of course must be taken with the other qualification in the proposed franchise that the company has found it necessary to extend their pipe line in the street in front of the property about to be supplied with gas. Then after having given a 30-year franchise and supposing that there is a supply pipe out in the street somewhere, then the private citizen has the great privilege of piping out and hitching on to it at his own expense under such restrictions as the company may impose.

And again: "The quality of gas must reach a fixed standard" and the "city may have a gas inspector." Hoping that the standard might be "reached" during the life of the franchise and that when "reached" it might not be found "fixed" by the company, the good people may employ a gas inspector to watch the gas company in the further hopes of keeping it square. That the quality has been far below any satisfactory standard, large part of the time under present private monopoly of a public necessity goes without saying. But to voluntarily impose upon ourselves the necessity of employing a public official to watch the guardians of a public necessity after again making another present of many thousands of dollars of value, instead of acting as our own guardians is to invite the criticism that we are in need of a guardian. The people should own the gas plant.

FARM HOUSE UP IN ICELAND.

Typical Structure of Turf in the Gue Room of Which Was an Organ Made in Vermont.

The guest room contained a narrow bed, a big round table and an organ made in Brattleboro, Vt. Our host produced the usual box of snuff, and with it a box of good cigars.

The host and hostess then showed us all over the house. It is a turf structure and is typical of the older farm houses, with narrow, dark, windowless corridors, in labyrinthine mazes from room to room. One passageway leads to a large open mound where fire is made to smoke meat and fish and incidentally the whole house is everything in it. Another passage leads to another kitchen with a modern stove. The walls are all of turf as is the roof, with just enough driftwood in the roof to make a framework to hold it in place. Very steep stairs lead up to the badstofa, or sleeping apartment. The badstofa frequently forms the sitting and common work room of the family, especially in winter, as well as the sleeping room of the entire household.

Bunks built into the wall extend around the room and are often filled with seaweed or feathers, over which is thrown a fold or two of wadmal and a thick coverlet of eiderdown. The floors are sometimes covered with boards, but more often consist of damp earth. From the ceiling are suspended numerous articles of domestic economy, while large chests containing clothing and valuables are scattered throughout the house.—Springfield Republican.

Official Report Shows Many Surprising Results.

FLINT'S INCREASE PHENOMENAL

Lansing, State Capital, Shows Remarkable Growth—Comparison of Populations of All Towns and Cities Today With 1900 Census—East Jordan More Than Doubles Population.

In the population statistics of cities and villages of Michigan shown by the federal census of 1910, given officially by E. Dana Durand, director of the census bureau at Washington, there are some surprises and some disappointments as compared with the federal census of 1900.

Some of the thriving cities find that their growth has not quite kept pace with their boasts and ambitions of the past few years. Others find themselves on a descending plane as a result of shifting population affected by changes in local industrial conditions. And others have made greater strides than the world about them realized or anticipated.

Flint has made the most phenomenal growth of any city in Michigan, if not in the United States, as compared with other cities of equal magnitude ten years ago. The Vehicle city justly leaped forward in tremendous bounds, lacking only 759 of having trebled in population during a decade.

The state capital, Lansing, shows up with a handsome increase, being almost double what it was ten years ago. East Lansing was not separately incorporated in 1900.

What might be proved by mathematics to be the largest increase may be boasted by Highland Park, one of Detroit's large family of rapidly growing suburbs. Just seven more babies in Highland Park last May would have made the official figures just 100 times the total number of souls in that section ten years ago.

Bay City and West Bay City were consolidated in 1903. The total population today is over 4,000 greater than the divided municipalities had, all told, in 1900.

Beyond the environs of Detroit, the village to show the largest gain since 1900 is East Jordan, which more than doubled in population.

In the following list, the municipalities incorporated as cities and the municipalities incorporated as villages, as shown in the Michigan Manual, are given separately.

County seats are marked with an asterisk. Where the federal census for 1900 is not given, the letter "s" indicates the figures given by the state census of 1904, and the letter "e" indicates the estimated population in 1900, in the absence of official figures.

CURES CATARRH

Also Coughs, Colds, Croup and Sore Throat.

Duane Spalsbury guarantees HY-OMEI (pronounce it High-o-me) to cure catarrh, acute or chronic; to cure colds, coughs, croup and sore throat, or money back.

In cases of deafness caused by catarrh, there is no remedy so efficient.

HYOMEI is a liquid extracted from the eucalyptus trees of Australia, and is a soothing, healing, germ killing antiseptic.

A complete HYOMEI outfit consisting of a bottle of HYOMEI and an indestructible hard rubber pocket inhaler costs $1.00. For treating catarrh or any throat or nose ailment, pour a few drops into the inhaler and breathe.

That's all you have to do, and as the air passes through the inhaler it becomes impregnated with antiseptic HYOMEI, and this soothing, healing air as it passes into the lungs reaches every particle of the inflamed membrane, kills the germs and heals the raw, sore catarrhal spots.

If you now own a HYOMEI inhaler you can buy an extra bottle of HY-OMEI for only 50 cents at Duane Spalsbury's or druggists everywhere. Free sample trial treatment, from Booth's Hyomei Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County, ss.

About twenty-five ladies were present at the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society which met yesterday at the church. Prof. B. W. Peet gave a talk on pure food, which he illustrated by exhibiting samples of food preparations. He stated that Michigan people are not so well protected as are those of many other states in the matter of pure food, and he hoped that the interest and enlightenment of the people throughout the state would increase in such a measure that the matter might be profitably presented before the next legislature. He suggested that Ypsilanti might be a sort of nucleus in this regard.

Mite-Box Opening.
The Home Missionary society of the First M. E. church held a most successful mite-box opening and supper Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. H. Deibel on Washington street. The mite-boxes surrendered over forty dollars to the treasury of the society, and all sources have not yet been heard from. The supper, which was particularly good, was liberally patronized.

Easter Dancing Party.
Invitations are being issued by Hart's orchestra for an Easter party to be held at the Masonic Temple on Friday evening, April 21. The orchestra will consist of eight members as in former parties. This is the third of the series of four parties to be given by the orchestra, the last of which will be given May 26 at the Masonic Temple.

MAKE FAST TIME ON SKATES

French Engineer's Invention Permits of Speed of Over Thirty Miles an Hour.

A new form of roller skate, the invention of M. Louis Marchand, a young French engineer, will shortly be seen on this side, a large quantity of them having been imported for the present season.
These skates, which resemble nothing more than miniature bicycles, weigh 25 pounds each, and work automatically. They have thick pneumatic tires and the wheels, of which there are two on each skate, are 12 inches in diameter.
Thirty miles an hour can easily be made by an unexperienced skater with these skates. The skate is clamped to the shoe, and when the foot is raised a spring is automatically wound up around a specially constructed gear attached to the rear wheel. When the foot is put to the ground the pressure releases the spring, unwinds the gear, and revolves the rear wheel at a great rate. Nearly 900 revolutions a minute are thus produced.

ARRESTED FOR DRUNKENNESS

(Contributed)
"Arrested for drunkenness," why even the name,
Causes us sorrow, and a blush of shame,
That such things to our beautiful city must come,
As wine, beer and whiskey, and death dealing rum.
But who was the criminal? Oh for shame,
We hesitate even to mention the name;
A mother of seventy. Oh we are glad
That such a mother few of us had.
Yet some mother's son sold her the drink.
Some mother's son signed the license we think.
Whose mother's son in this town voted wet?

We are reaping the harvest; and the time is not yet
When we are ready to drive from our city this sin.
That is taking our fathers, sons, yes mothers in
To make of them drunkards our prisoners to fill.
And put a few pennies in our city's till.
On April 3d have we fathers enough, To drive from our city this accursed stuff.
And sons who will honor their mothers and vote
As we are sure most mothers will tell them they ought.

A TEMPERANCE MOTHER.

Diplomatic Rebuke.

A little known story of the Jewish race in Portugal is told of King Joseph I. of that country. On one occasion the king ordered that all Portuguese who were in any way allied to or descended from the Hebrew race should wear yellow hats. The old Marquis de Pombal, then minister in chief, shortly afterward appeared at court with three yellow hats under his arm. The king smiling, asked him: "What are you doing with these?" The marquis replied: "I have them in obedience to your majesty's command, for I really do not know a single Portuguese of note who has not Jewish blood in his veins."
"But," insisted the king, "why three hats?"
"One is for myself," answered the marquis, "one for the inquisitor general by your side, and one is, in case your majesty should desire to be covered."

Regal Shoes at Cost Plus 5 per Cent.

An Earthquake for the Trade, but a Benefit to the Public

Regal Prices Are Now $3.35 to $5.85

NOBODY OUTSIDE the shoe trade can realize what a jolt that trade received when the Regal Shoe Company announced its new pricing policy.

"HENCEFORTH," said the Regal Shoe Co., "all the shoes we make will be priced at COST OF MANUFACTURE AND SELLING, PLUS FIVE PER CENT. COMMISSION, no matter whether that price figures out in odd or even money, and without regard to the 50c jumps between prices, heretofore arbitrarily fixed in the shoe business."

IT WAS NOT the five per cent. that gave the jolt. The Regal Shoe Co. has always done business on a five per cent. profit and every manufacturer knew it. It was the abandonment of the "even price" that caused the stir.

THAT "EVEN-PRICE" policy has been the darling superstition of the shoe trade for twenty years or more. Standard shoes had been sold for so long at $3.50, $4.00, $4.50, $5.00 and so on, that dealers thought no other prices were possible.

"BARGAIN" SHOES—nameless products shoveled out by shoe "departments"—might be sold at odd prices. But standard makes—oh, never!

IT WAS ARGUED seriously by expert shoe-salesmen that men and women who wanted shoes of name and character would rather pay even prices. That is, they argued that a man would rather pay $5.00 than $4.85, whether or not he got anything worth having for that extra 15c.

AND SO, WHEN a designer produced a new shoe that could be sold for profit and all at $4.85, the manufacturers were up against an embarrassing situation.

THEY COULD DO any one of three things—and some one of these three things they all did:

THEY COULD LET that $4.85 shoe stand as it was and ask $5.00 for it, getting an extra 15c profit, if Regal competition would allow it,—or

THEY COULD ADD 15c worth of unnecessary expense to the shoe, bringing its price up to $5.00

OR, THEY COULD SKIN 35c worth OUT of the shoe, bringing its price down to the next even figure—$4.50, but spoiling the shoe's quality-balance.

BUT AS FOR DOING the obvious and proper thing—selling that $4.85 shoe for $4.85—why that was not to be thought of!

SEEMS RIDICULOUS, doesn't it? But all superstitions seem ridiculous after you have exploded them. And the Regal has exploded this one.

HEREAFTER, Regal Shoes will be built just as the Regal style-builders plan them. They know their business, and they know their public.

IF THEY SAY "This shoe is right as it stands—the best shoe that can be devised and built for its particular want and purpose"—why that shoe is going to the public just as it is, unaltered by a foolish custom.

THE DESIGNERS will not be required to add anything unnecessary to it, nor to take anything out of it, to bring its price up to or down to any set figure.

THE MANUFACTURING COST of that shoe will be figured carefully; five per cent. will be added and a further allowance covering the actual cost of selling that shoe to the customer, and the resulting sum will be the price of that particular shoe, whether it is $3.35, or $3.50, or $4.85, or whatever it is.

THE PRICE WILL BE STAMPED ON THE SHOE AT THE FACTORY and certified public accountants will verify the prices and also verify the fact that only five per cent. commission is added.

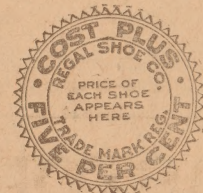

YOU GAIN MORE than the dimes you save by the odd prices. You gain also by better balanced quality and by the fact that you pay only for what you want.

REGAL Style-Builders now have a free hand. They simply get out the BEST SHOE THAT THEY CAN DEVISE for a certain purpose at about a certain price. You pay for exactly what you get, plus the fair 5 per cent. You are taxed nothing for useless additions.

GOWN FOR MUSICALS.

The New Modish Stripe
For Gowns of Every Type.

GOWN FOR MUSICALS.

The girl who sings and whose means are limited is often compelled to make the same gown do for both her afternoon and evening engagements. To find a gown that will be both simple enough for the one use, yet dressy enough for the other, is not so easy as it may seem. The gown pictured here combines these qualities. It shows the new striped effect, here achieved by bands of satin on the bodice and tunic. Ball fringe edges the tunic, which falls over a band of the fashionable Venice lace. A striking appearance is given to the costume by means of the use of horizontal stripes in the side panels.

Black and white stripes will naturally have first place in the early season's gowns, because we are under the seductive thrall of this combination. Several of the important dressmakers have already turned out gowns of black and white striped satin draped with black chiffon cloth or marquisette, with a touch of handsome heavy lace on the shoulders.

With these gowns go turbans or large hats of black net, with white aigrets and green scarfs or Alsatian bows of black and white striped ribbon.

The whole idea is a good one for spring, for attractive as black is its universal usage the past winter rather depressed one. If it had not been for the freedom of wearing vivid colors as a contrast we would have been a somber assemblage indeed.

MY LADY'S BONNET.

Recalls the Headgear of Her Great-grandmother.

Man has never been able to disassociate woman's millinery from the name of bonnet, and now he may literally speak of his wife, sister or daughter's bonnet since the most modish things in the shops are the coquettish little affairs that tie under the neck with ribbons. The bonnet pictured here is an almost exact copy of the headgear of the French directoire period and recalls the old fashioned poke bonnet.

Bonnets are far more becoming to young girls than older women, for whom, presumably, they are intended, and some of the quaint bonnet effects of this season make charming frames for girlish faces. On young girls these captivating bonnets are babyish and picturesque, and the fresh, pretty face is all the more lovely because of the quaint bonnet that surrounds it.

Cerise and the American Beauty shades play a prominent part in the present millinery bouquet. Every year artificial flowers grow more like their natural prototypes until there seems nothing more for the artist to accomplish.

We will give you your choice of one of our remnants with a purchase of $2.00 or over of Wall Paper. Weinmann-Matthews Co., 118 Congress street. 414-415

We do not believe in Fake Sales, and therefore shall not hold a Fire Sale. We do believe in keeping absolute faith with our customers, for we are working for future as well as present business.

You will naturally feel as if you should have a discount on goods that have had this "smoke bath," even if they are absolutely as good as before the fire.

Acceding to this expectation we shall offer our entire stock of

TO KEEP CHILDREN.

The following amusing "recipe for preserving children" written by Miss Mignone Lincoln, aged 16, of New Orleans, and which won the prize for the best answer to St. Nicholas' Magazine, will be relished by all women whether mothers or not.

Take one large grassy field; one-half dozen children, all sizes; three small dogs; one long narrow strip of brook, pebbly if possible. Mix the children with the dogs, empty them into the field stirring continually; sprinkle with field flowers. Pour brook gently over the pebbles. Cover all with a deep blue sky. Bake in a hot sun. When the children are well browned, they may be removed; will be found right and ready for setting away to cool in the bath tub.

MYSTERY OF CHICAGO MAN

Hanging of Logan May Leave the G. B. Shively Riddle Unsolved.

Spokane, Wash., April 14.—With the hanging of William Frederick Jahns, alias James Logan, in Walla Walla, Wash., penitentiary June 21, may vanish the last chance to solve the mystery of the disappearance of G. R. Shively, a Chicago merchant. Four years ago Shively sold a farm near Addy, Wash., to Logan, received the money and vanished. Logan recently was convicted and sentenced to be hanged for the murder of his housekeeper.

Two weeks ago the burning of a big pile of refuse at a saw mill near Addy exposed a large box carefully buried in the sawdust. In the box was the body of a man. The box tallied with the description of one shipped from Spokane by Logan at the time Shively disappeared, and the size of the body, the absence of one joint of a finger, and other signs indicated that the body might be that of the missing Chicagoan.

FACTORY HANDS ON STRIKE

System Instituted by Herzog Art Furniture Co. Not Popular.

Saginaw, Mich., April 14.—About 200 employees of the Herzog Art Furniture Co. walked out because the management instituted a system which the men believed would lead to piece work.

State Pardon Board Saved.

The bill received but 28 affirmative votes to 36 against.
